

CEO of Beaulieu S.A.

Share your unique strategic and creative vision through developing an outstanding site

Your main responsibilities

Inspiring leadership is part of your DNA and the sense of entrepreneurship is second nature to you. In a dynamic relationship with the Board of Directors, you promote Beaulieu's new ambition to the teams.

You implement strategic goals by developing the site's recognition and reputation with commercial partners. You also represent the organization by increasing its awareness, greatness and notoriety.

In order to achieve with success this mission, you are supported by a team of twenty talented people, highly flexible and open to change. You value a transversal approach and support the prosperity of the company by energizing the site and creating a virtuous ecosystem. At the heart of your goals you will be developing partnerships and creating a hub. This will bring companies, sports, culture, health and together.

In this changing context, you find the best solutions, consistent with the strategy, leading Beaulieu towards a new dimension, thus offering a unique experience.

Your skills and qualifications

As a result of being inspiring, committed and ambitious, you are driven by innovative and bold thinking but also embrace and lead successfully change. You are talented in recognizing and seizing opportunities for long-term development projects, aiming at the benefit of the community.

Able to anticipate and define guidelines for your teams, you create a framework that values initiative and ensures success. Your communicative energy brings you to promote the new ambition and to proudly embrace the role of Beaulieu's ambassador.

You have an established experience in an executive role or in the management of complex projects involving team leadership. Having a university degree or equivalent level, your experience allows you to reach out to a proven and diversified network, including on an international scale. Fluency in French and English required. German is an asset.
